

Example #1

Hello,

How are you doing today?, I was paid to assassinate you, but I felt it will be right for me to inform you and hear from you, before carrying out my operations.

I honestly tell you that this contract was given to me by a close business friend of yours, with effect to your reading this e-mail, note that you are not safe.

I will appreciate if you to act very fast to this mail or else I will be forced to carry out my operation.

I have all your informations with me now, as am talking to you.

If you feel contacting a security firm or the police will make you safe, I want to also inform you that it will not stop me, it will rather make me to carry out my operations very fast, so stay cool and contact me for negotiations. Note that I sent this email after keeping an eye on You for over ten days, so you can see what I meant by telling you that a security firm can't save you. Just waiting to hear from you, so I know if I can change my mind under the grounds of negotiation, and I think, after negotiation I will be ready to inform you about who sent me.

I am a member of a well trained group in the middle east, we take part in Suicide bombing and special killings, For top government officials.

Note that I am all around you, so make sure you don't do anything more than contacting me, if not you will regret it.

I await your comment on this.
